SUPER.

DEAR PARENT OR GUARDIAN,

This September your child's school will be joining forces with Cartoon Network and SUPER. for the launch of Cartoon Network Adventure Academy, an education programme designed to celebrate the important role that cartoons can play in skill and education development.

Working alongside the PSHE and Citizenship curriculum, the programme helps children recognise how everyone has their very own Super Power, from being the fastest runner to the best listener.

To bring these skills to life your child is invited to enter our Super Hero Poster Competition, where they are encouraged to design a poster featuring themselves as a Teen Titans Go! Super Hero, highlighting their own skills as Super Powers.
